Who are we?

The American Diabetes Association is the nation's leading non-profit health organization providing diabetes research, information and advocacy. Our worldwide professional membership of nearly 20,000 recognizes the Association as the authoritative provider of continuing education in the field of diabetes treatment and care, both domestically and abroad.

Mission Statement

The mission of the American Diabetes Association is to prevent and cure diabetes and to improve the lives of all people affected by diabetes. To fulfill this mission the Association funds research, publishes scientific findings, and provides information and other services to people with diabetes, their families, health care professionals, and the public.

The 70th Scientific Sessions

The American Diabetes Association's Scientific Sessions attracts an international audience of diabetes professionals. Last year's meeting in New Orleans, Louisiana was attended by over 13,000 healthcare professionals.
