Responsibilities and Clarifications of the Presentation Theaters
National Medical Association 2018 Annual Convention and Scientific Assembly

The National Medical Association (NMA) is pleased to offer exhibitors and non-exhibitors the opportunity to host a presentation in the Presentation Theater and allows for roundtable dining. This is an opportunity for companies to showcase new products and treatment options and reach up to 150 attendees in pre-scheduled, advertised presentations during the Annual Convention and Scientific Assembly. The Presentation Theater will be located in the exhibit hall with access during exhibiting hours.

The offering is defined as:

- Presentation Theater: A half-hour time slot scheduled for industry sponsor and its representatives to conduct a speaker-led presentation that meets the requirements of FDA/OIG guidelines and the PhRMA and/or AdvaMED marketing code. It is the responsibility of the industry sponsor to design and develop all presentation content and distribution materials, as well as select, recruit and train the speaker for the program. As a matter of policy, NMA is not involved in any aspect of the content development or the client's strategy or tactics related to the peer-to-peer program area. Presentations will run unopposed to CME programming. NMA will provide snacks and beverages during the presentations.

NMA Responsibilities:

- Audiovisual Package includes:
 - (2) Projector DLP
 - (2) Projection Screen -9' c 16'
 - Graphic Laptops-Win 10 - HDMI

- Recruitment and provision of presentation speaker
- Develop and manage non-accredited content for presentation
- Recruit faculty for lead retrieval scanning
- Develop slides/handouts
- Provision of slide presentation on-site
- Advanced shipping of theater materials for delivery to the theater / your booth.

All promotional materials must include the following disclaimer:

“The Presentation Theater’s content and the views expressed therein are those of the sponsor and not of NMA. Presentation Theaters are a part of NMA’s Exhibit Program. This program is not intended or eligible for continuing medical education (CME) credits and does not meet guidelines governing CME.”

Additional Terms/Client Responsibilities:

Adhere to FDA/OIG guidelines and PhRMA and/or AdvAMED marketing code at Presentation Theater. Respect, acknowledge and support the obligations of the accredited provider by adhering to the ACCME Standards for Commercial Support, including the need to ensure separation of education from promotion. NMA recognizes that the Presentation Theater(s) will be promotional and may concentrate on a specific product or drug. These presentations are not approved for CME credit. NMA expects up to 150 Health Professionals to opt-in to attend each of the presentations. NMA does not guarantee any attendance numbers, market individual programs, or accept responsibility for the content strategy or tactics related to the presentations used by the industry supporter.

- For further information regarding Presentation Theaters, Exhibit Space, Sponsorship or Advertising at the NMA Annual Conference please contact Kathleen Lawrence 856-302-0893 or email: kathleen_lawrence@AFassanoCo.com

Content Control & Compliance: The NMA does not maintain control of the content of the presentation theater. It is the responsibility of the sponsoring entity (presentation theater organizer) to develop and implement the program content and related logistics. All presentation theaters should fully comply with all applicable U.S. Food and Drug Administration (FDA) laws and guidelines on industry supported scientific and educational activities, PhRMA Code on Interactions with Healthcare Professionals, AdvaMed Code of Ethics on Interactions with Health Care Professionals, AMA Ethical Opinion on Gifts to Physicians, and the Office of the Inspector General (OIG) Compliance Program Guidance for Pharmaceutical Manufactures.

Rules and Regulations

1. Staffing & Logistics - The sponsoring company of the Presentation Theater shall be solely responsible for the management of the logistics for their Presentation Theater, and for payment of additional costs related to the Presentation Theater including but not limited to additional A/V equipment, electrical, internet, phone, etc. NMA does not provide any logistical support for Presentation Theaters.
2. Distribution of Materials - All products and services discussed at the NMA Annual Convention shall be directly related to the NMA mission and must be of professional or educational benefit or interest to conference participants. NMA reserves the right to determine the eligibility of prospective companies for inclusion in its conference. Companies shall not distribute anything to conference attendees outside of its Presentation Theater.

All presentations, meetings, distribution of literature, and the transactions of business of any nature shall be made WITHIN the Presentation Theater during the contracted time slot. Temporary booth and/or Presentation Theater personnel, including third-party planners, shall be restricted to the same afore mentioned Guidelines as authorized exhibitor personnel. Solicitation in the aisles outside the Presentation Theater or intercepting those in attendance for advertising purposes is strictly prohibited.

3. Promotional & Marketing Materials - All promotional and marketing materials must be submitted and approved by NMA prior to distribution. The use of NMA's Logo is not permitted on any Promotional and Marketing Materials. All material must contain the following statement:

“The Presentation Theater’s content and the views expressed therein are those of the sponsor and not of NMA. Presentation Theaters are a part of NMA’s Exhibit Program. This program is not intended or eligible for continuing medical education (CME) credits and does not meet guidelines governing CME.”

Promotional materials, even if approved, may not be handed out anywhere. The prohibition includes distribution in hotel lobbies, restaurants, in front of the event hotel or in or around the convention center. NMA's name, seal, logo and acronym are proprietary marks and may not be used in signs, advertising or promotions in any media or on product literature either inside or outside exhibit area. This rule applies before, after and during the meeting. Submit artwork in PDF format to Kathleen Lawrence. For assistance call 856-302-0893.

4. Promotional Signage - NMA will provide Presentation Theater Schedule on the Exhibit Hall Entrance Unit to promote the Presentation Theaters. Applicants hosting a Presentation Theater are permitted to supplement signage in the NMA Registration area and outside the Presentation Theater beginning the morning of the applicant's time slot, and must be removed immediately after the conclusion of the time slot. Signs must be professionally printed, no larger than 22" x 28", and may be ordered through NMA's official decorator or a contractor of the applicant's choosing.

Please note: Proposed copy for signage must be approved by NMA prior to printing. Applicants may display signs promoting their Presentation Theater in a NMA pre-approved location. Companies violating these rules will have their items removed/confiscated. Production of signage and easel rental are the responsibility of the participant.

5. Limitation of Liability - The sponsoring company and affiliates shall indemnify NMA and all associates of NMA against all claims, demands, actions, expenses, damages penalties, attorneys' fees or proceedings incurred by NMA as a result of the publications distributed at, statements made during or any other conduct arising out of or in any way connected with the Presentation Theater.

Meeting Room - Nothing shall be posted on or tacked, nailed, screwed or otherwise attached to columns, walls floors, or other parts of the facility. Applicants may not apply paint, lacquer, adhesive or any other coating to building columns and floors. Applicants are liable for any damage caused to Presentation Theater floors, walls, columns, or to standard Presentation Theater furnishings and equipment, or to other applicants' property. The contracted applicant is responsible for all personal and corporate property placed in Presentation Theater space.

6. Security and Insurance – Any non-exhibiting company must provide Certificate of Liability Insurance. The Presentation Theater area is not a secured area. NMA will not be liable for damage or loss to sponsoring company's property, nor shall NMA be liable for any injury that may occur in the Presentation Theater area.
7. Changes to Materials - No changes shall be made to any aspect of the presentation after acceptance has been granted without express written consent of NMA.
8. Agreement to Conditions - Each company's employees agrees to abide by these conditions.
9. Amendments - NMA shall have sole authority to interpret and enforce all rules and regulations contained herein, and to make any amendments thereto and to make such further rules and regulations as shall be necessary for the orderly conduct of the Presentation Theaters.
10. Give-a-ways - Companies are permitted to distribute from the Presentation Theater, during their assigned time slot only, non-exclusive giveaways in accordance with the AMA Ethical Guidelines, linked here.

In addition, applicants are encouraged to review and adhere to other applicable guidelines and codes of ethics, such as the Pharmaceutical Research and Manufacturers of America (PhRMA) Code on Interactions with Healthcare Professionals, Advanced Medical Technology Association (AdvaMed) Code of Ethics on Interactions with Health Care Professionals and the Office of Inspector General's (OIG) Compliance Program Guidance for Pharmaceutical Manufacturers. Pharmaceutical and device companies are reminded to pay special attention to the recently revised PhRMA and AdvaMed Codes, respectively, which prohibit their members from distributing many traditional giveaway items.

Giveaways should be associated with products or services. NMA encourages all applicants to check with their companies' own medical affairs/compliance staff for guidelines adhered to by their own companies. All giveaways must be registered via the online Additional Giveaway / Booth Activities form found in the Exhibitor Service Kit.
